

Course 6 Key Takeaways

Stage 3: FIP Implementation

Best Practices

Keep these best practice guidelines in mind as you implement your FIP:

- Post the FIP publicly on FisheryProgress.org and update the FIP's progress every six months.
- Have the FIP Lead meet regularly with responsible parties and key stakeholders to monitor progress of FIP actions.
- Conduct annual FIP review meetings with key stakeholders to evaluate FIP progress.

Roles and Responsibilities

- The FIP Lead is responsible for hiring an independent consultant to conduct the three-year, in-person audit.
- All FIP Stakeholders and FIP Participants are responsible for fundraising or providing financial or in-kind support for the implementation of FIP actions.
- All key FIP Stakeholders may be responsible for implementing FIP actions, depending on the workplan. This includes the FIP Lead, government representatives, seafood businesses, fishers, NGOs, scientific experts, and researchers.
